

ElliSicily. ANFE in New York & New Jersey. A Week in the Name of Legality

(October 09, 2009)

Italy's National Association of Migrant Families (ANFE), is in New York for the Italian Heritage and Culture Month with a very busy agenda of meetings, conferences, and encounters. All the events scheduled are dedicated to the figure of Joe Petrosino and to the theme of legality and anti-Mafia struggle in Sicily and in Italy more generally. Participating in the events are the Governor of Sicily Hon. Raffaele Lombardo, the National Anti-Mafia Attorney Mr. Pietro Grasso, and well-known journalists, academics, and musicians from Italy and the U.S.

The Associazione Nazionale Famiglie Emigrati (National Association of Migrant Families) is a not-for-profit association founded in 1947. This year, ANFE's Regional Branch of Sicily, operating since the 1950s, is participating to the Columbus Day celebrations with an outstanding delegation and remarkable events.

Created to protect and support Italian emigrants and their communities throughout the world, today ANFE is increasingly committed to promote the social and cultural integration of immigrants in Italy, and to assist them in entering the labor market.

This year the main theme of the events organized by ANFE is "Legality."
Here is a list of the major events on schedule. They are all open to the public.
